

Dr. Amjad Mahboob is a qualified and experienced medical professional with expertise in Infectious Diseases, holding qualifications including MBBS, FCPS (Medicine), FCPS (Infectious Diseases), FACP, FIDSA, PGD-BME, and CHPE. He is recognised as the Pioneer Infectious Diseases Specialist from the Khyber Pukhtunkhwa region working in the public sector, as well as an approved supervisor for Post Graduate Training in Infectious Diseases in the province.

Currently, Dr. Mahboob is a Professor and Head Division of Infectious Diseases in the Department of Medicine at Gajju Khan Medical College (GKMC), Swabi, and a visiting consultant at Bacha Khan Medical complex Swabi. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he served as the Team Lead Clinical Care stream for the province and as a technical expert with the NCOC. He is also involved with the National Institute of Health for the National Action Plan for AMR containment and is a TWG member in Infection Control. Dr. Mahboob has provided consultancy for Dengue case management guidelines development and training in Pakistan for WHO. He is a Master Trainer for Rapid Response Teams (RRT).

Dr. Mahboob's areas of special interest include Clinical Infectious Diseases, One Health, antibiotic stewardship, Infection Control, Public health, Vaccine's research, HIV, Hepatitis, Cholera, Influenza, Dengue, Rabies, Brucellosis, Arboviruses, Biosafety and biosecurity, and Bioethics. His awards include Pride of Pakistan (2021) and Pride of Performance (2024). He holds memberships in the Infectious Diseases Society of America (IDSA), International Society of Infectious Diseases (ISID), Medical Microbiology and Infectious Diseases Society of Pakistan (MMIDSP), American College of Physicians (ACP), British Infection Association (BIA), International Federation of Infection Control (IFIC), and Pakistan Biosafety Association (PBSA). His extensive experience includes clinical, academic, and administrative roles, including a previous position as Hospital Director. He has authored numerous publications, books, and guidelines related to infectious diseases.